SENATOR BUTLER, of South Caroina, has written a sensible letter to the Charleston News and Courier on the subject of the recent duel between a Col. Cash and Mr. Shannon, in which the latter was murdered. The paper above mentioned has also had some timely editorials on the subject. The duel came off a few weeks ago. The particulars appeared in the CHRONICLE at the time. We would be glad to see public sentiment in South Carolina, and wherever the barbarous code is in vogue, awakened to the importance of proper treatment of these murderers. It would be a good thing to begin with Cash. Mr. Shannon, the murdered man, was a lawyer, and for doing his duty to his clients, was challenged and insulted, until, in a weak moment, he consented to meet Cash on the field after the manner of bloodyminded duelists. He lost his life. Cash ought to hang. Hanging is the punishment prescribed by law for the awful crime of murder, and he ought to suffer the penalty. to such scenes, and we know of no one of whom an example could be made with greater propriety than this man Cash. If his life is spared, some other worthless fellow will goad some other man into a similar encounter with similar results. If his neck is put into the hangman's noose, and he suffers the reasonable penaly of a law that he has violated, we will have no more of such outrages. Senator Butler asks for his punishment, and we trust that he may get all he de-
